The Conditions, Covenants, and Restrictions

(WPA Policy Manual Section III. Appendix III-1)

The Conditions, Covenants, and Restrictions are applicable to all lots in Wedgefield Plantation. All building plans, house location and elevation, driveways and landscaping are subject to approval by ARC. The covenants provide for refusal of any plans at the “sole and uncontrolled discretion” of the Board, including “purely aesthetic considerations.” Pursuant to this authority the Board has delegated the authority to review and approve plans to the Architectural Review Committee.

The Architectural Review Committee was created pursuant to the Wedgefield Plantation Association By- Laws. Denial of Architectural Review Committee approval is subject to an appeal process outlined in the By-Laws. The By-Laws also provide the Board the authority to impose penalties for violations of the Covenants, Bylaws, and policies of the ARC. The board may apply to the Court for damages or injunctive relief, and to recover costs and attorney’s fees.

Appeal Process:

Any property owner who has had plans denied by the ARC may appeal the ARC decision within fourteen (14) calendar days of denial. A legibly written statement explaining why the ARC should approve the submitted plans will be sent to the ARC. The ARC then reviews the statement and either amends or upholds its decision, within fourteen (14) calendar days, with an explanation. If the ARC does not amend its decision and the applicant refuses to change the plans, the applicant may request in writing, that the plans, ARC decision, written statement, and ARC explanation be forwarded to the Legal Committee. The Legal Committee will review these documents to see if the ARC violated the Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (CCRs), federal, state or local regulations, ARC guidelines, or By-Laws. If no ARC violation is found, the Legal Committee shall refer the appeal to the full board for a final decision. If the Legal Committee finds a violation, it is reported to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors then instructs the ARC to amend its decision.
